UVIS NAMES MICHELLE CORBETT 2019 UNDERWRITER OF THE YEAR

United Valley Insurance Services (UVIS) awards CIG employee for the second time in three years

MONTEREY, Calif. (May 7, 2019) – Capital Insurance Group® (CIG), the leading regional property and casualty insurer serving the Western United States, is proud to announce that United Valley Insurance Services (UVIS) named CIG’s own as their ‘2019 Underwriter of the Year’. Michelle Corbett, personal lines underwriter, received the award for the second time in three years — she was also awarded the same honor in 2017.

“CIG is honored to have one of our employees recognized once again for her outstanding service and dedication to our independent agents,” said Arne Chatterton, president and CEO of Capital Insurance Group. “This award from UVIS represents unparalleled commitment to our industry and to those she serves. I am thrilled to see her recognized for her hard work and am honored to have her as part of the CIG Team.”

The award recognizes Michelle’s exceptional service and dedication to the insurance industry. UVIS selects from all insurance carriers they do business with, and only awards one underwriter per year.

“We were so pleased to be able to award Michelle Corbett with Personal Lines Underwriter of the Year at the 2019 UV Conference & Trade Show. Michelle has illustrated that she’s best-in-class year after year, for the last three years, by being nominated and selected by United Valley members,” said Rene Swan, president of United Valley Insurance Services.

Headquartered in Monterey, Calif., CIG employs nearly 400 people across five states (Washington, Oregon, California, Nevada, and Arizona) with six satellite offices throughout its footprint. CIG is known for providing trusted insurance products for the personal, commercial, and agricultural business segments, with an emphasis on property related exposures.
