Monterey, Calif. (August 6, 2019) – Capital Insurance Group® \(CIG\), the leading regional property and casualty insurer serving the Western United States, is pleased to announce its continuation as title sponsor of the 12th Annual The Langley: A Tribute to Legends, happening on August 12-13, 2019 in Pebble Beach. This year's event will honor Mark O'Meara, PGA tour legend and local honoree Bob Lurie, former owner of the San Francisco Giants. PGA tour host Peter Jacobsen serves as this year's event host.

Launched in 2008 and named after the beloved golf legend Jim Langley, The Langley is a premier golf and social event at Pebble Beach Resorts, honoring the game's legends while benefitting PGA Hope. This program provides free golf lessons to disabled and able-bodied military veterans to enhance their mental, social, physical, and emotional well-being. The charitable two-day, sold out event consists of An Evening with Golf's Legends at The Beach Club next to Stillwater Cove, where attendees have a meet and greet with the honorees. This is followed by The Langley Charity Pro-Am Tournament and an award luncheon the next day.

"We are proud to have been a part of the Langley Tournament for more than a decade," said CIG President & CEO Arne Chatterton. "CIG is committed to not only golf and its players, but also to protecting and restoring communities across the western United States. PGA Hope is a cause that wholeheartedly fulfills our mission of giving back, and The Langley Tournament is a wonderful occasion to celebrate and honor both the game and our veterans.”
